while you all rant and rave and run from judge to judge looking for help i am planning to go to a memorial service friday in upstate ny i would accept service

if you wish, i can arrange to have the essex county sheriff serve me @ the civil office there in lewis ny assuming you all can get your act together and stop acting like total fools of course there would be a fee which is about $35 a document paid for in advance...they may even accept an attorney's check\ or if you would prefer wait and see how your plans work out...

thanx
